

ALMOST YOU'RE SMILING

Roger Ellis Bruner

25-Dec-1992

rev. 21-Dec-2017

very freely and quietly

♩ = 67

1. Lit - tle bab - y, in a man - ger, al - most you're cry - ing.
 2. Lit - tle bab - y, in a sta - ble, al - most you're smil - ing.
 3. (repeat stanza two or play instrumental down to third refrain)

Can it be you feel the cold - ness of the world you've come to?
 Can it be you feel the joy of those who wait your com - ing?

Do you some - how miss the warmth you left at home in Heav - en?
 Do you some - how know what hope you've brought to earth from Heav - en?

Lit - tle bab - y, in a man - ger, al - most you're cry - ing.
 Lit - tle bab - y, in a sta - ble, al - most you're smil - ing.

Refrain

Do you see your - self as just an or - di - nar - y ba - by or
 Do you see your - self as just an or - di - nar - y ba - by or
 Do you see your - self as just an or - di - nar - y ba - by or do you some - how rec - og - nize that You're the Son of God?

 do you some - how rec - og - nize that You're the King of Kings?
 do you some - how rec - og - nize that You're E - man - u - el?